Applications were invited for three appointments of Sub Inspectors of Police by advertisement, the conditions of recruitment inter alia being that the applicant should not be over 25 years. The selected candidate Mr. A.R. Jagatheswara, is over 25 years. It is not clear therefore how his application was entertained at all. When recruitment of candidates to Public Service is made through advertisement, the conditions of such advertisement should be strictly adhered to. This is what is followed by the Public Service Commission: if a candidate for selection fails to fulfill any one of the conditions his application is summarily rejected.

The Hon'ble the Resident is competent to grant exemption from age rules. But it will create a bad precedent if exemptions are made in a case like this when selection is made by inviting applications through advertisement and the conditions of selection are not adhered to.

In the circumstances it is for consideration whether

and accept a candidate who is over the advertised maximum age. Unless there is any particular reason which renders Resident's sanction necessary, I think that Comdt of Police should be asked to decide the question for himself.

Under Section 1 of the Administrative Instructions in connection with the Fundamental Rules, a person whose age exceeds 25 years may not ordinarily be admitted into the service of the State in superior pensionable service without the sanction of the Head of a Department. The powers of the Head of a Department under the Fundamental Rules are exercised only by the Hon'ble the Resident in the C. & M. Station vide Supplementary Rule 310 (d). The Resident's sanction is therefore necessary to exempt the candidate from the operation of the age rule.

Will Resident please see from paragraph 1.

I am sorry about paragraph 6, because I had hoped that it would have been possible to have avoided the necessity for any interference on Resident's part. I discussed the question with Collector on 13th December 1934; and we both agreed that this appeared to be the best course, if it was possible.

Now, however, it is clear that the question must be referred for Resident's decision. I cannot but agree with what is said in paragraphs 2 and 3 of notes. The candidate reached the age of 25 on 13th August; and the vacancy was not advertised until the 31st October. His application should never therefore have been entertained, and he should not even have been permitted to come up for the interview. This would have been the proper course. If the advertisement of a vacancy contains certain conditions which must be fulfilled by applicants for the vacancy, the application of a candidate who does not fulfil these conditions should be rejected at sight, and the candidate should not be allowed to compete.

In the present case, however, the candidate has been allowed to compete; and he has been found to be easily the best of his class. It is a question, therefore, whether we ought to allow ourselves to be deprived of the services of the best available man on account of a [redacted] technical objection.

The candidate is only 2½ months over age; and taking all the circumstances into consideration, I think that he may be selected.

In all the circumstances I agree that he may be selected

OFFICE OF THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

Regd. No. 11,371
File No.

To

The Secretary to the Hon'ble
the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

Subject:- Sanction for 3 Supernumarary Sub Inspectors.

I have the honour to report for the information of the Hon'ble the Resident that I have, in conjunction with the District Magistrate, selected 3 Probationary Sub Inspectors and have addressed the Principal Police Training School, Vellore enquiring whether these three Probationary Sub Inspectors will be taken into the School this term for training.

These probationary Sub Inspectors have been passed fit by the Residency Surgeon this day and will therefore be considered as having been enlisted as Probationary Sub Inspectors on Rs. 50/- from this date. The period of training in the Vellore School lasts till October 1935.

Out of the three vacancies against which these Probationary Sub Inspectors have been enlisted, two are permanent vacancies and the third is now held by a Head Constable who is acting in a chain of arrangements consequent on an Inspector being sent away on leave preparatory to retirement. In the other two vacancies, senior Head Constables will have to be posted as Acting Sub Inspectors for carrying on the work until the Probationary Sub Inspectors return from training.

I therefore request that the Hon'ble the Resident may be pleased to sanction the entertainment of these 3 Probationary Sub Inspectors as Supernumerary to the sanctioned strength until such time these Probationary Sub Inspectors finish their course of training and get merged in the permanent strength.

The additional cost involved under this head would be the cost of pay under training to the three Probationary Sub Inspectors viz., Rs. 1,650/- out of which Rs. 450/- can be met out of savings already shown in the allotment under 26-A Police - District Executive Force - A.2 - Police Force in the current year's budget and the balance in next year's budget.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the District Magistrate and myself, in anticipation of the Hon'ble the Resident's sanction selected one A. R. Jagatheswaran as a Sub Inspector on 1-12-1934 as we considered him to be easily the best candidate among the non-Brahmin caste Hindus. He is slightly overage having been born on 13th August 1909. I request that the Hon'ble the Resident may be pleased to accord his formal sanction to the selection of an overage candidate. The actual vacancy occurred -- before the individual had attained the age of 25.
